Venerable Mother Veronica was an English Anglican minister's daughter, who was drawn to the Catholic Church. ST AGNES CONVENT & INSTITUTIONS

The crest inspires
the Agnesian to look up to and realize in her life a higher idealism and spirituality

ST AGNES

St Agnes, the Virgin-Martyr is the Patroness of this Institution. Against the background of power, vice, luxury and persecution in the Roman World, the steadfastness of the Maiden Agnes captures our imagination as her beauty and wealth did the hearts of the noblest of Romans. With the world at her feet and all that life could offer she turned her back on it and chose death for Christ. Her purity of life, modesty, truthfulness and steadfastness are the virtues we want our young women to live out in their lives.

THE COLLEGE MOTTO

The college motto is 'DEUS FORTITUDO MEA', a Latin phrase which means 'GOD IS OUR STRENGTH'. Living a meaningful life is an impossible task, unless we have light and strength from above. Our college anthem echoes the inspiring message of these words.

November 2024
Agnesian Diary

St Agnes PU College has played an important role in my life in nurturing me into the person I am today. Singing the anthem "God is our strength - let us commit our lives into His hands this day" brought about a sense of gratitude and humility for all that I would take part in, during the day. My time here has been extraordinary owing to my academic progress, my singing interests as well as the encouragement I have received from the Principal and Staff members at St Agnes PUC. I hold dear to my heart my extraordinary lecturers who helped me in progressing further in my studies and giving interpretations to all that was taught. As I moved on to pursue my bachelor's and eventually my master's in Germany, I felt ready for all the challenges that came my way. I can definitely vouch for the wonderful memories I made and the friends that I hold very close to my heart. I also keep in touch with my lecturers who have always pushed me to go ahead in life with strength and courage. I will always have the utmost respect for my Alma Mater and I will be ever grateful to St Agnes PU College for shaping me into the person that I am today!

Agnesian Diary
"August 2024"

As I reflect on my time in St. Agnes, I'd like to share a memory that is forever etched in my heart. I remember reading the quote at the entrance to the building. It said "Bow your head and enter our temple of knowledge". Standing there, I knew St. Agnes was the place for me. It showed how the institution revered good education, humility and respect - qualities that are essential for a human being. As an NRI, moving to Mangalore was a huge transition for me but I was always thankful to my lecturers and principal for always being approachable and helpful. From the friendships formed in the hallways to the knowledge gained in the classrooms, St. Agnes has played a pivotal role in shaping me into the person I am today. Thank you for being a beacon of light during my formative years and for preparing me for the journey ahead.
